

Make a Chinese New Year 'Lucky Money' Envelope!

In China a red envelope is a gift of money which is given on special occasions. Chinese children receive money in these during Chinese New Year celebrations. The red colour symbolises good luck.

1. Cut around the solid lines.
2. Fold along the dotted lines.
3. Glue the side and bottom tabs.
4. Fold the big tab over to secure it in place.
5. Decorate the envelope using red and gold as these are lucky colours in China.

N.B. The tab at the top stays open until there is money inside.
